"Confetti."

All over the ground 'tis plentiful,
And in the house beside;
I sweep it up in hands full,
But, Oh how it does hide.

Some lies on the parlor floor,
And in the kitchen too;
Everywhere, behind the door,
And in the baby's shoe.

It isn't any fun to stoop,
And pick such tiny scraps;
From carpets, rugs and curtain loop,
And from the children's wraps.

Tell the truth and do not lie,
When going home so late;
There's the tell-tale confetti,
A nestling on your pate.
